

Christmas at the National Theatre

Your perfect Christmas party venue

This Christmas, celebrate at the National Theatre – where world-class stages meet unforgettable spaces. From skyline views to riverside charm, our venues offer something for every kind of festive gathering.

Raise a glass at the Buffini Chao Deck, with its panoramic terrace overlooking the Thames. Host a refined dinner at Lasdun, our modernist dining room serving exceptional seasonal food. Gather friends and colleagues at Forza Wine, a vibrant rooftop spot for Italian-inspired plates and cocktails. Or keep things relaxed at The Understudy, our lively riverside bar perfect for a more informal celebration.

The National Theatre is minutes away from Waterloo station and easily accessible by the train, tube, bus or even Uber boat, making it the ideal party location.
